Monthly Newsletter for the Membership of the Nevada Gay Rodeo

Letter from the President

Dr. Shaun Franklin-Sewell, NGRA President 2011-2012

Members:

I'm very excited about the months ahead! This month, many of us were at the World Gay Rodeo Finals. It was an excellent event; I was honored to serve as checklist trustee and to assist in some future planning discussions related to Finals.

I hope all NGRA members will also come out on October 22 to celebrate the life of Randy Meadows, a.k.a. Kandice Kane, Miss NGRA 2008 1st Runner Up, at 9 p.m. at Crews'N. In November, our Mr. and Miss NGRA, Chris Reynolds and Taylor Trash, will head to convention to compete for the International title. At convention, Miss NGRA 2010, Kimberli Foxx, will step down from her year as Miss IGRA 2011. Let me be the first to say to all of them: Congratulations to all of you on a successful year.

President Continued...

In December, our four outstanding candidates for 2012 Royalty - Sabel D'zyre and Mormonizer (for Miss NGRA), Jason Jewel and Curtiss Lewis (for Mr. NGRA) - will compete for the titles. There are some amazing things planned for the weekend of December 10, so be sure to hang out in Vegas before heading off for the holidays.

Once we get through the holiday season, we'll be fast on the road to BigHorn Rodeo 15. There's much, much more going on. Check this newsletter each month and our e-mails for all the details.

Hey y'all, it takes a village to raise a rodeo and to help our community. We can use the help of anyone who wants to step up!
